Re: United States v. Ari Teman, 19-cr-0696 (PAE) –
Request for Extension to File Reply to Opposition to Motion for Reconsideration

Dear Judge Engelmayer,

I represent the Defendant, Ari Teman (the “Defendant” or “Teman”) in the above-referenced matter.

After requesting and obtaining a one-week extension to respond to the motion for reconsideration of your Honor’s denial of Teman’s application for compassionate release, the Government filed its opposition to Teman’s motion on March 7, 2024. Dkt. 426. I am in turn facing an exceptionally challenging series of deadlines, with a reply to an opposition to a motion for summary judgement in the matter of Grand v. City of Ohio, et al., 22-cv-1594 due today; a reply to an opposition to a motion for leave to amend in the matter of GateGuard, Inc. v. Amazon.com, Inc. et al., 21-cv-9321 due on March 13, 2024; and a joint pre-trial memorandum, jury instructions and voir dire questions in the matter of Shahidi v. Robinette, et al., 22-cv-6075 due on March 15, 2024. Given the demands of these cases, which will conflict with my ability to advocate effectively for Teman, who continues to experience severe pain and suffering for a range of serious medical conditions, I respectfully request a short extension, to Monday, March 18, 2024, to file Teman’s reply to the Government’s opposition. I have conferred with opposing counsel and the Government does not oppose the present request.

I thank your Honor for your courtesies.

GRANTED. The Clerk of Court is requested to terminate the motion at Dkt. No. 429.

SO ORDERED.

3/11/2024

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER
United States District Judge

Respectfully submitted,

Eden P. Quanton
